* If using the Spring student's housing lottery information, the Fall student will still select housing but will receive priority based on the Spring student's class standing and lottery number.

*If the student on campus in the fall decides not to go abroad in the spring, he or she will be required to vacate their room and be re-assigned for spring housing.

*If the student on campus in the fall is re-assigned to a room on campus other than the room above for any reason, the student returning in the spring will also be re-assigned to that new room.
